Traditional Warehousing/Distribution

Let IntelliQuick Delivery warehouse your merchandise or parts locally in our warehouse storage facilities and deliver them on an as-needed basis anytime and anywhere throughout the Southwest.

With warehouse facilities in Phoenix, Tucson, Las Vegas, Denver and Salt Lake City, IQ can inventory your products, break down shipments, pick and pack to fulfill orders and deliver them either same day, next day or even twice daily, utilizing our own warehouses and state-of-the-art computerized inventory system.

Your customers deserve prompt response and undivided attention, whatever their warehouse management and fulfillment service needs may be:

- Warehouse Management and Warehouse Storing
- Retail and E-Commerce Fulfillment
- Pick and Pack
- Cross Docking
- 100,000+ Sq. Ft of Warehouse Space

Cross Docking

IQ's cross docking for Retail Distribution leads the way in efficiency and economical on-time delivery. When your retail shipments reach IQ's cross-docking facilities, they are quickly parceled out to our waiting trucks utilizing the latest in technology to ensure accuracy and efficiency. These smaller shipments can be delivered last mile direct to your clients seamlessly and with the superior customer service you can count on from IQ. Our cross-docking team combines 50 years of experience in third party logistics and supply chain management support.

Cross Docking Technology: Scanning Device Capabilities

- Uploading with Advance Shipment Notifications (ASN)
- Scan and Compare Received Shipments to ASN
- Provide Overs/Shortage/Damage Reports (OSD)
- Provide Electronic Evidence of Damages
- Capable of Scanning Returns and Pick-Ups from the Customer with Real-Time Documentation to the Shipper
- Maintains Operations Inventory Accuracy and Integrity

Cross Docking Facilities

- 100,000+ Sq. Ft. of Warehouse Space
- 10 Acres of Adjacent Warehouse Available for Build-Out

Retail and e-Commerce Fulfillment

Every day, IQ ships orders for thousands of retail products from television shopping networks, catalogues, and e-Commerce websites. IQ has the expertise that ensures rock-solid reliability and accurate retail delivery. We can guarantee the accuracy and timeliness of our deliveries because we have more resources available—more driver agents, a wider area of coverage and superior technology and processes for dispatching, tracking, communicating and reporting (OSD, ASN).

Specialized Freight

IntelliQuick Delivery offers Specialized Freight Services for companies with the need to move mission critical, less than truckloads (LTL) throughout the U.S. We have the right equipment—box trucks with lift gates, pallets, pallet jacks and packaging materials—no job is too small or too big.
